

Rev. Dr. Lester W. Taylor, Jr.

Senior Pastor of the Community Baptist Church of Englewood, NJ

Biography

Dr. Lester W. Taylor Jr., the husband of Lady Gayle Green-Taylor, father of two wonderful children, and two adorable grandchildren, is the senior pastor and visionary leader of the Community Baptist Church of Englewood, New Jersey. He has led this congregation since 1993 offering a ministry of hope and restoration. Under his leadership the church is experiencing tremendous growth and development. In 2011, God favored him to lead the congregation in the completion of their new worship facility. Today, the vision is yet unfolding as he, along with the CBC family, pursues excellence in every aspect of ministry.

A graduate of the Philadelphia Biblical University (1985), the New York Theological Seminary (1999), and the Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary (2002), Dr. Taylor is known for his strong bible teaching and preaching that's practical enough to live on a daily basis. His ministry is one of empowerment and encouragement.

Dr. Taylor is committed to the gospel of Jesus Christ. He is a gospel preacher! His goal is to serve this present age through ministries that speak to today's issues. He has a passion for developing those wrestling with the call to ministry. He is affectionately called the "Pastor's Pastor!" He enjoys his ministry as a symposium leader, revivalist and bible teacher.

Presently, Dr. Taylor serves as the Vice President of the Northeast Region of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. He has served as the president of the General Baptist Convention of New Jersey, Inc., the moderator of the North Jersey District Missionary Baptist Association, and the president of the Black Clergy Council of Englewood, Teaneck, and vicinity.

Dr. Taylor's life scripture is John 15:16 which says, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My name, he may give it you."
